Interest:

Last week this place was visited by quite a large number of Indians. It can justly be called an eventful week, as the consequences were rather serious in their character. On Monday an ex Pawnee Chief, "Big Spotted Horse," came in. He had lost cast with his tribe, and was known to be a "bad Ingen." A principal business with him was to peddle prostitute squaws among the cow boys and others in the territory for gain. He visited Caldwell and other places in the edge of the States frequently. On the morning of this day, 14th inst., he called in several houses in the village, begging money, victuals, etc., and when refused in one place, got angry and drew his revolver. place, got angry and drew his revolver and threatened to shoot the man. One of the Most Interesting Events in the History of Phonix Lodge.

Recovery of the Original Charter-Pre-sentations to the Worshipful Master and Junior Warden.

A Bountiful Supper, Short Speeches, Etc., Etc.,

One of the most interesting events in the history of Phomix Lodge, 123, F. & A. M., occurred on Monday night, during the eventful snow storm. For two or three weeks preparations had been in quiet progress, but the Worshipful Master, Hon. Asher Cook, and the Junior Warden, Mr. Frederick Hirth, had been kept in blinsful ignorance. Convenient tables were constructed for this and similar occasions in the future, dishes and all necessary preparations for the culinary department were smuggled in without exciting a suspiction. Bro. M. A. Troubridge visited Cincinnati and secared the services of Grand Secretary Caldwell in selecting a design and getting made the selecting a design and getting made the Past Master's Jewel to be presented to e Worshipful Master. Invitations were sent out to a number Invitations were sent out to a number of surrounding ledges, and despite the terrible storm a full delegation to present from Northern Light Ledge, of South Toledo, Wakeman Ledge, of Waterville, and representatives from others. A full delegation would have been present from Wood County Ledge only for the storm.

The unusual demonstration at this regular communication of the lodge, was oclast opportunity that the Worshipful Master, Hon. Asher Cook, would have of meeting with the Fraternity before his departure for Europe. We adopt the greater portion of the Toledo Bec's report of the proceedings of the evening, ing was one of no little importance to the Lodge—that was the announcement by the Secretary, Mr. C. C. Taylor and the Worshipful Master, that of Phoenix Lodge had been restored, and now hangs upon the wall of the Lodge room. This charter, by some singular freak, had been removed in 1868, and a new charter substituted, with the names of the persons then occupying the Chairs. At the session of the last Grand Lodge of Ohio, held at Cleveland, Worshipful Master Cook made application for the restoration of the original content of the period. application for the restoration of the origi-nal charter, or, if that was not possible, for a duplicate of the original. The effort inst., by Mr. J. W. Ross, and addressed to Mr. F. Hollenbeck of this place. It contains matter of both general and local interest:

Worshipful, Master: -In behalf of Phoenix Lodge, I have, in the language of St. Paul, "somewhat to say unto thee." We have learned with regret that this is probably the last time that you will preside over our deliberations prior to your de-parture for other lands. It is therefore meet that we should, on this occasion, express to you in person our appreciation of your services as master, our regard for you as a brother, and our sincere regard for you as a brother, and our sincere regret at your separation from us.

We feel that in your government of the lodge, authority has been exercised with discretion, enforced with firmness, and tempered with kindness. We also feel that in the noble work of our profession as masons, you have watched and aided our progress with the interest and becomes within with the interest and pleasure which a father feels in the advancement of his children; and that you have ever cant over our individual short comings the "broad mantle of a mason's charity."

We also feel that throughout your long connection with this bales, you have in connection with this lodge, you have, in your daily life, practically illu trated those valuable doctrines and precepts, which you have expounded from the master's seat; thereby strengthening precept by example. We believe the natural result has followed. WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, May 19, 1883.

But speaking of the clerks recalls the scene about Washington to the clerks recalls the scene was the clerks recall the scene was the clerks recall the Wednesday morn. Done at Con about Washington hat Wednesday morning. The capital has welcomed within its gates many distinguished men of the world hall, and embracing a most tempting array of both substantials and delicacles. When all was in readiness, the brethren were seated around the table, with their Worshipful Master at the head, and the signal was given by the W. M. to partake of the viands before them. At this juncture Brother F. J. Oblinger, of Rubicon Lodge, Toledo, who sat at the left of the W. M. arose in his seat and announced that before further proceedings were had in that direction he had a pleasant duty to perform, and, addressing Worshipful Master. W. M. stose in his seat and announced that before further proceedings were had in that direction he had a pleasant duty to perform, and, addressing Worshipful Master Cook, very briefly expressed to him the high esteem and fraternal regard in which he was held by each and every member of the Lodge over which he so worthily presided. And in view of the fact that he was soon to take his departure for Europe to be absent for some time, the speaker had been delegated to present him, on behalf of on the painted wagon. I hear rumors of an enterprise that in breadth and bigness is the largest thing in this decade. It is a plan to get out of the grip of the United States thirteen millions of dollars, with the accumulated interest for nearly twenty years. When the Hon. William E, Chandler was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury he organized the Cut. William E. Chandler was Assistant Secre-tary of the Treasury he organized the Cut-ton bureau. In it was deposited the mon-ey received for cotton taken from private individuals and sold by Government agent. This money belongs to many persons and a few corporations in the south. It was the intention of Mr. Chase to hold this money it trust for the recent to wear the money in trust for the person to whom the cotton belonged, but for some years no one has been able to obtain a dollar. The largest amount ever recovered from the Government by any individual was $600, 000, which the estate of Charles Lamar, of Georgia, got by employing General B. F. Butler and ex-Attorney General Williams Boutwell could not resist the persunsive powers of these two eminent men, and so he gave up the amount mentioned. The he gave up the amount mentioned. The fee was $50,000 to each attorney. The new combination with its guns aimed at this fund has, I hear, brains, courage, and money behind it. So perhaps it may win. It will play for a big stake.
